

Interactive Career Change Management

Thinking about changing careers?
Need guidance in choosing a positive career direction?

Attend our NEW Interactive Career Change Management Seminar! Attendees will have the opportunity to follow along with the seminar leader on a computer throughout the process. Participants will take a free online career assessment, access career web resources related to their vocational interest patterns, and participate in a career development discussion with one of our licensed counselors.

Career Change Management may be helpful for those who:

- . . . plan to pursue training or education and want to be sure they are making good career choices.
- . . . have been working in an occupation where the demand for their kind of job is “shrinking”, and need to do something different.
- . . . do not like the usual type of work they have been doing, and want to change to something else.
- . . . have limited or no work experience and want to explore what kinds of jobs or careers would be right for them.
